Editor's Message

Dear Reader,

This year's annual staff started the 79-80 school year with relatively little experience but lots and lots of good ideas. I think you will find, as you read this year's book, some very pleasing changes.

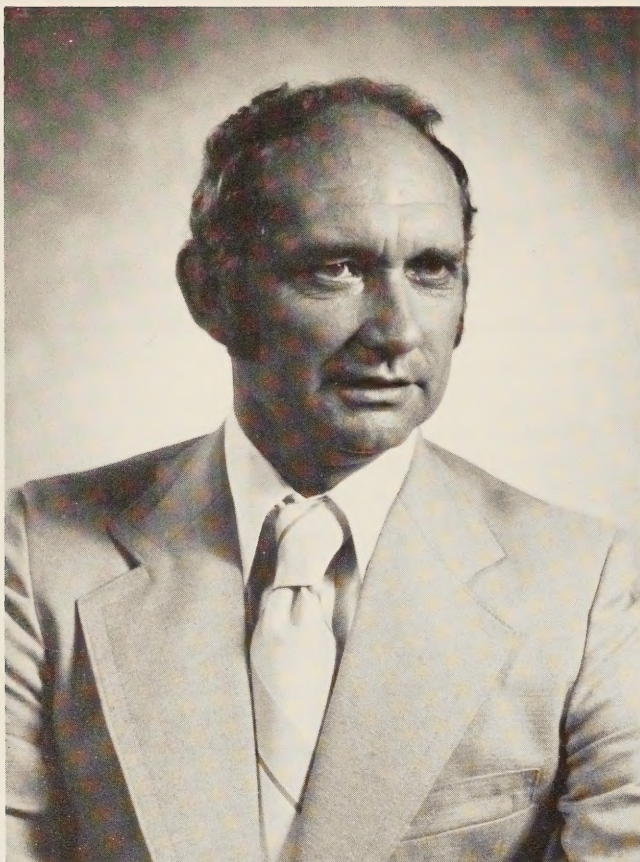

Our theme this year is "New ideas with old beginnings." We have combined what we feel have been previous book's assets, and have added our own touches which we feel have greatly increased the appeal of our book.

This is a very special book, which should be handled with care. In it are all of the memories of the school year which will only become more and more valuable with the passing years.

Read it, cherish it, and when you are through, next year's annual staff would greatly appreciate any suggestions or comments.

Thanks,
Pam Sutherland
Editor

Our 1980

The Annual Staff dedicates this 1980 Knight to Mr. Paul Adkins. Through their constant prodding, we our many activities and senior years. thanks go to our Kings."

Relating . . .

"Relating To Each Other" appropriately sums up the way each of us feels toward the other members of the 1980 Senior Class. Throughout the years, we've stuck together when the going got tough, as well as when we were on the top of the world. When our prom looked disastrous, and when our floats needed at least two more weeks of construction, we always managed to get our act together. Somehow we turned out some of the best floats and one of the

to Each Other

finest proms C.H.S. had ever seen. The 1980 Graduating Class has built quite an impressive reputation for setting high goals and reaching them! We always strived for perfection in academics and athletics, as well as in our extracurricular activities.

No matter how many miles pass between us, we will never forget the wonderful memories we've shared at Clintwood High, and we'll always stay together in our hearts.

Famous Last Words

Junior Branham — The hardest goals to reach in life are the ones that you want the most. Good luck Greenwaves in '80.

Vickie Fleming — The years of the past open the doors for the future.

Carolyn Mickles — All of my friends at C.H.S. and to the ones in the Senior Class, I say Good Luck and have a happy life.

Robin Fleming — It's been a lot of fun. Let's party on!

Sherry Senter — If life is love, music, and laughter, let me live forever.

Charlotte Mullins — To all my friends at C.H.S. I love ya. And I have truly enjoyed coming back to school. Good Luck.

Gaye Elkins — May the road rise up to meet each and every one of you. But if it doesn't, don't ever give up because there is always hope! Good Luck, B. F.

Preston Sumner — Thanks to Shirley M., she has made this year fun for me.

Greg Willis — Thanks for all the Wild Women.

Lisa Standifur — I am ready for the world but is the world ready for me.

Al Steffey — It must be nice to be burnt out on women, Joey and Mike.

Kim Smith — Life has been great so far, but it will be better when I get out of here.

Zack Rose — It looks like we made it.

Clayton Salyer — Today C.H.S., tomorrow the world.

Steve Rose — Today we follow, tomorrow we lead.

Teresa Jo Mullins — Tracy, I'll love you always.

Robert Phipps — Be yourself and you will go far.

Debbie Stanley — Everyone at C.H.S. is terrific.

Patty Mullins — Thank God we're Seniors!

Coy Ramey — Knock them dead out there.

Joey Phipps — The winning team never loses.

Sam Mullins — Would you believe I'm going to graduate?!!!

Ronal Fleming — Thanks for nothing, it's been boring.

Pam Sutherland — Rick, thanks for making this year the best. I Love You.

Scott Stanley — Thank God, for all these wild women and Hot Rods.

Tamala Sykes — Life was great being a senior, Best of luck.

Blake Stanley — Best of luck to all the seniors at Clintwood High.

Debra Baker — Carolyn and Shelia, to the greatest! I wish you both the best in years to come. And let us never forget the years we shared together at C.H.S.

Mark Clark — I know nuffin!

James Greear — It's been great here at C.H.S. and I hate to go, but they really forced me! Everybody stay cool and raise cane!

Vandog — All the way Greenwave Football in '80, we'll be behind you!

Sandy Ratliff — My dreams today are tomorrow's happenings.

Tippy Stanley — My luck has finally changed, I'm a senior.

Deloise Stanley — I have nothing to say, but the best of luck in whatever you do.

Von Johnson — My time at C.H.S. has been well worth it. Besides being an educational experience, it has been a way of life and I will miss it very much.

Sylvia Fletcher — I've made the greatest memories here at C.H.S. than I ever will in my future lifetime.

Donnie Stanley — Win the big football game in '80.

Frank Silcox — Susan, Patty, Denise, and Penny. Thank you for being a friend. Stay close!

Ronald Kendrick — Good Luck to all at C.H.S.

Charlotte Fleming — To Mark (nothing) 'cause you got what it takes!!

Susan Eirbarne — To the coaches my gratitude and sincerest love. To the teams to come and Tammy, best of luck and to Sandy, Penny, Susan, and Gaye. See ya later.

Mitchell Fleming — Class of '80.

Blake Fleming — First of all thanks for all the friends through the years. And second to all those wild seniors of 1980 stay wild and most of all stay out of the "slammer." Good Luck.

Allison White — To the craziest school I've ever been to.

Liz Stanley — If life is as great as being a senior live forever.

Rodney Fleming — Roses are red, Violets are blue, I'm glad to get away from this darn school.

Swede — Time has come from us to carry on our wayward journey. "My Brothers of the Blood."

Becky Mullins — Support the D. E. class. It's part of your future.

Susan Hamilton — (13) — Everybody stay crazy and be good to ol' C.H.S. 'cause it's had about as much as it can take from the wild Seniors of '80. And remember the Clintwood Girls Basketball Team was L.P.D. and Region D. champs in 79-80.

Kim Hall — Since I can't say nothing mean, I won't say nothing at all.

Darius Elkins — Let's be like Moses and get the flock out of here.

Randy Phipps — 12 is enough.

Brenda Rose — The Senior year is O.K. except there's a lot more work.

Donna Mullins — If teardrops were gold, I'd be a millionaire.

Pam Mullins — When the memories are gone, what is left?

Ricky Mullins — A thought of peace, hope, and kindness for mankind's society.

Mark Mullins — If united we stand, the Iranians will fall.

Ross Puckett — Be yourself and party down in the '80's.

Teresa Mullins — The senior year is the best year that we have, but there is a lot of work to it.

"Dick" — Sue, Eirbarne, Frank, Sandy, James, Kelly, Blake, Payy, Donna etc.. Thanks for all the good times!!

Carrol Mullins — Honest John needs a coon hound.

Bobby Carty — Goody-Bye you wild, weird, and crazy people.

Sheila Mullins — Margie, Debbie, Carolyn, Aleta, etc. Wish ya lots of Love and Luck with everything.

Kim Short — Since life is so short, we should live it to the fullest.

Donna Rose — Memories of the past haunt my mind while I struggle to live in the present so that I may look forward to my dreams of the future.

Brent T — Zero, Rilo, Wong, Mush, Lizard Let's go out into the big world and take care of Buggs, If we can.

Gail Patterson — (keith), I wuv you I really, really do.

L.P.D. and Region D. Champs

The Lady Wave created quite a sensation during their victorious 1979 season. While the girls were building their impressive record of accomplishments, they gathered a rather large following of fans. A lot of hard work and dedication by the coaches, players, fans, scorekeepers, and clock operators contributed to their success. Even Wonder Wave dropped in one night to offer her help, but Coach Deel had things under control. Joy and pride clearly shine in the faces of all the people connected with the team. These pictures provide the perfect ending to the perfect story, as the memories of this fantastic season will live on in the hearts and minds of all.

"1979, The Year of the Big Green Line," was certainly just that. When the Greenwave took the field, everyone stood in awe. The 70-man strong Wave never let up and literally wore their opponent out. They always strived for perfection, and the dedication and team spirit were envied by every team in the state. The 1979 Greenwave upheld the winning tradition at Clintwood by keeping a perfect District record and by winning the Region D. title. Thanks, boys, for making us all very proud to be Greenwaves!

The 1980 Varsity Wave Baseball team turned out in record number for this year's baseball season. The team spirit and dedication of this year's team has everyone at Clintwood High School buzzing with excitement. It seems as if the Wave is determined to have a winning season.

The Wave is a basically young team, and where experience is lacking, there is an abundance of excitement and energy. We are all proud of our baseball team and wish to extend our thanks to the team for being true Greenwaves.
